

Ben Barrett

Born: February 14, 1979
Toronto, Canada

Coaching Experience

- Team West USA Coach
- Esperanza High School Varsity Coach 2006-2009
- Assistant Coach with the University of Toronto Varsity Blues Men's Ice Hockey Team 2004-2006
- Coached Junior Varsity for the University of Toronto 2002-2004
- Reebok Jr. Ducks Head Coach 2008-2009
- RBK Bulldogs Head Coach 2006-2008
- Corona Inline Development Camps Instructor

Education

- Graduated from The University of Toronto in 2003 with a Bachelors of Physical and Health Education
- AAU Coaching Certification levels 1, 2, 3
- Heartsaver First Aid with CPR and AED
- High School Coaching ???

Awards

- Won the Varsity Blues Coaches Award in 2004 for leadership, community involvement and unrecognized contributions to the University and the Hockey program
- Awarded the Dean's Leadership Award in 2004 for Intramural involvement & Inter-Collegiate participation

Playing Experience

- AIHL Mens Jr. Ducks team 2008-2009
- 5 seasons for The University of Toronto Varsity Blues 1999-2004 (Assistant Captain 2003-2004 season)
- Invited to The United Hockey Leagues Fort Wayne Komets training camp 2004-2005 season
- 3 seasons in the Ontario Provincial Junior A Hockey League for the Vaughn Vipers and Brampton Capitals (Captain of the Capitals 1998-1999)
- Played competitive hockey for over 20 years